JUBILATE DEO
(Psalm 100)

O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands:
serve the Lord with gladness, and come
before his presence with a song.

Be ye sure the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and speak good of his Name.

For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is everlasting: and his truth endureth
from generation to generation.

INTRODUCTION

Whilst researching the history of my family at the National Archives in Dublin, I discovered connections with Newtownbarry Parish. I contacted the Rector and he very kindly supplied me with much useful information. He also revealed that a transcript of the earlier Newtownbarry and Barragh registers had been made and he readily accepted my offer to retranscribe them using a word processor. As with all documents of this nature the original should be consulted to confirm that entries have been transcribed and indexed accurately.

The following specific points should be borne in mind when using the transcript:

Dates All dates have been standardised as follows; day in numbers, month in three letters (abbreviated as necessary), year.

Legibility and Spelling In cases of doubt, the spelling of surnames has been checked against other entries in the index; variations in the spelling of the same surname have been noted. Indecipherable details are marked with a ?.

Additional Information Marginal notes and comments from the Registers appear in the text or as footnotes.

Illiteracy Those who made a mark in the registers are indicated by an "x" after their name.

Chronological Discrepancies Entries out of chronological order by more than a week or so are in italics.

The Index The index lists in alphabetical order all persons who were baptised, married and buried at Barragh over the periods covered by the various Registers. Where circumstantial evidence points to entries for more than one event for the same person, they have been included on the same line in the index. In the absence of any such evidence they have been listed separately.

BARRAGH CHURCH (ST PAUL'S CHURCH, KILDAVIN)

HISTORY OF THE PARISH AND CHURCH

Barragh is an ancient parish in Co Carlow and the earliest reference to an incumbent is in 1608 (see page v). The parish contains the village of Kildavin, part of the town of Newtownbarry and covers some 17600 acres. The living was a rectory in the Diocese of Leighlin. The parish was united to Lorum in 1871 and subsequently to Newtownbarry in the Diocese of Ferns.

St Paul's Church at Kildavin was built about 1812 to replace the church at Barragh which had been destroyed in Cromwell's time. A gallery had been erected in Newtownbarry Church shortly after it was built to seat Barragh parishioners. The Board of First Fruits gave £800 towards the cost and the building could seat 100. The Ecclesiastical Commissioners granted £123 for repairs about 1830. The glebe-house was built in 1824 by a gentleman for his own use and purchased the following year for £1107, the Board of First Fruits contributing a gift of £738 and a loan of £369. In the 1830s divine service was celebrated twice on Sundays in summer and once in winter, and on principal festivals; the Sacrament was administered eight times a year. The sanctuary was extended about 1870 using funds provided on Disestablishment.

DETAILS OF THE REGISTERS

The documents on which this transcript is based are copies. The dates suggest that they were probably made when the original registers were sent to Dublin in accordance with the 1875 and 1876 Acts, only to be destroyed in the disastrous fire at the Four Courts in 1922.

The first one is labelled:

"A Registry of Births, Baptisms, Marriages, Funerals In the Parish of St Mary Newtownbarry and the Union of Barragh By the Rev James Morgan Rector Commencing from the day of making his Assent and Consent being the 30th day of Jun 1799. No prior Registry to be found."

and contains:

Births/Baptisms	1799-1805	(65 entries)
Marriages	1799-1805	(4 entries)
Deaths/Burials	1799-1805	(7 entries)

The second one is labelled:

"The Following is a true and exact copy of an old Registry Book, found in Barragh Parish."

and contains:

Baptisms	1831-1837	(57 entries)
Marriages	1830-1831	(4 entries)
Burials	1838-1878	(22 entries)

The third one is known as the '12 page notebook' and duplicates/adds to the contents of the previous register copy as follows:

Baptisms	1831-1837
Marriages	1830-1837	(40 entries)

The remainder are straightforward copies of the original pro-forma registers as follows:

Baptisms	1837-1879	(463 entries)
Marriages	1838-1844	(19 entries)

The later registers are held by the Rector and are not included in this transcript.

JUBILATE DEO
(Psalm 100)

O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands:
serve the Lord with gladness, and come
before his presence with a song.

Be ye sure the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep/ his pasture.

O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and speak good of his Name.

For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is
everlasting: and his truth endureth
from generation to generation.

Alphabetical Index of Entries in the Registers	15-17

INTRODUCTION

Following on from my first transcript of the earliest Barragh registers, the Rector invited me to produce a further transcript of the Marriage Registers for the second half of the nineteenth century (actually up to 1903 - the end date of the Newtownbarry transcript); this document is the result. As with all documents of this nature the original should be consulted to confirm that entries have been transcribed and indexed accurately.

The following specific points should be borne in mind when using the transcript:

Dates All dates have been standardised as follows; day in numbers, month in three letters (abbreviated as necessary), year.

Legibility and Spelling In cases of doubt, the spelling of surnames has been checked against other entries in the index; variations in the spelling of the same surname have been noted. Indecipherable details are marked with a ?.

Illiteracy Those who made a mark in the registers are indicated by an "x" after their name.

Transcriber's Observations Canon Leslie's Biographical Succession List of the Clergy of Leighlin Diocese (1939 - unpublished) states that, after Disestablishment, Barragh was united to Lorum and subsequently to Newtownbarry. This is not borne out by the entries in this Register. It seems much more likely that Barragh was united to Newtownbarry immediately after Disestablishment (late 1872 or early 1873). The initials of the ministers of the united parishes are shown in brackets.
