JUBILATE DEO
(Psalm 100)

O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands:
serve the Lord with gladness, and come before his presence with a song.

Be ye sure the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves;
we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and speak good of his Name.

For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is everlasting: and his truth endureth from generation to generation.

INTRODUCTION

Whilst researching the history of my family at the Representative Church Body Library at Braemor Park, I discovered connections with Kilgarvan Parish. I thought that the Registers deserved to be protected from over-use and more widely available; this transcript is the result. As with all documents of this nature the originals should be consulted to confirm that entries have been transcribed and indexed accurately.

The following specific points should be borne in mind when using the transcript and index:

Dates All dates have been standardised as follows; day in numbers, month in three letters (abbreviated as necessary), year. Obvious errors are shown in bold.

Legibility and Spelling In cases of doubt, the spelling of surnames has been checked against other entries in the index; variations in the spelling of the same surname have been noted. Indecipherable details are marked with a ?.

Additional Information Marginal notes and comments from the Registers appear in the text, in brackets () or as footnotes; additional information provided by the compiler appears in square brackets [].

Banns Names of persons whose banns were read at St Peter's Church but who were married elsewhere are included.

The Index The index lists in alphabetical order all persons who were baptised, married, mentioned in banns and buried at Kilgarvan during the periods covered by the various Registers. Where circumstantial evidence points to entries for more than one event for the same person, they have been included on the same line in the index. In the absence of any such evidence they have been listed separately.

ST PETER'S CHURCH, KILGARVAN

HISTORY OF THE PARISH AND CHURCH

Kilgarvan is an ancient parish and the earliest reference to an incumbent is in 1485/6. The list of post-Reformation vicars starts in 1615 (see page v). St Peter's Church was built in 1815 by means of a gift from the Board of First Fruits (£553 16s 11d according to Fullerton and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, £600 according to Lewis) and accommodated a congregation of one hundred. The Ecclesiastical Commissioners gave £125 for repairs to the Church in the 1830s. The glebe-house was built about 1818 with a gift of £400 and a loan of £280 from the Board of First Fruits.

In the 1830s divine service was celebrated once on Sundays and on principal festivals; the Sacrament was administered eight times a year. A list of Protestant inhabitants of the Parish in 1834 is included at the back of the Combined Register (P255/1/1). Kilgarvan was closely linked to Kenmare and entries for Kilgarvan parishioners are to be found in the Kenmare Registers and vice versa. The Parish continued to have its own incumbent until 1921. The benefice remained vacant until 1924 when Kilgarvan was united to Kenmare under the Minimum Stipend Act. Separate Registers were kept until 1947 for marriages and 1960 for baptisms and burials. Details of the surviving Registers are at page vi. St Peter's Church was closed in about 1980 and has stood empty and unused since. It may become a community centre.

Killaha is also an ancient parish. It was effectively united to Kilgarvan in 1812 on the appointment of Rev Bastable Herbert, who had been appointed Vicar of Kilgarvan the previous year. A list of the Protestant inhabitants of the Parish in 1834 is also included at the back of the Combined Register.
