JUBILATE DEO
(Psalm 100)

O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands:
serve the Lord with gladness, and come before his presence with a song.

Be ye sure the Lord he is God: it is he
that hath made us, and not we ourselves;
we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and speak
good of his Name.

For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is everlasting: and his truth endureth from generation to generation.

INTRODUCTION

Whilst researching the history of my family at the Hyde Park FHC, I noticed a microfilm purporting to contain miscellaneous Irish genealogical material. Amongst the microfilmed documents was a typescript of the earliest surviving Stabannon Parish Registers, which are shown in the recently published IFHS/NA parish register list as having been destroyed in the Four Courts fire of 1922. To correct this oversight and to bring the existence of the document to the attention of a wider audience, I decided to produce a new version of the original (unattributed) typescript, itself a copy of an earlier transcript produced by John R Garstin DL about 1875. As with all documents of this nature the original should be consulted to confirm that entries have been transcribed and indexed accurately.

The following specific points should be borne in mind when using the transcript:

Dates All dates have been standardised as follows; day in numbers, month in three letters (abbreviated as necessary), year.

Legibility and Spelling In cases of doubt, the spelling of surnames has been checked against other entries in the index; variations in the spelling of the same surname have been noted. Indecipherable details are marked with a ?.

Additional Information Marginal notes and comments from the Register appear in the text or as footnotes. Extracts from the 1821 Census in the Gartin transcript appear as an appendix.

The Index The index lists in alphabetical order all persons who were baptised, married and buried at Stabannon over the periods covered by the transcript.

Transcriber's Observations The entries in the typescript of Mr Garstin's transcript were compared to the entries printed in Canon J B Leslie's History of the Kilsaran Union (British Library shelf-mark: 10390 e22) - any variations are indicated by italics. A tentative summary of surviving Stabannon material is as follows:

History of the Church and Parish Canon Leslie's History of the Union of Kilsaran (1908, reprinted 1986) is the standard work on the subject. The parish of Stabannon & Richardstown was divided in 1883: the townlands of Braganstown, Clintonstown, Dromgoolestown and Stabannon (including the church) were united to Kilsaran & Gernonstown; the townlands of Drumcashel and Roodstown and the Parish of Richardstown were united to Ardee. Stabannon Church was closed about 1907, the few remaining Church of Ireland families attending Kilsaran or Ardee Churches thereafter.
