INDEX OF NAMES OF PEOPLE BAPTISED OR BURIED IN KILLUCAN 1696-1786

Note
Poor legibility and inconsistent spelling of names necessarily lead to uncertainty about how names are rendered today. Surnames such as Smyth/Smith and Ganly/Maganly appear to be interchangeable and might be the same families. A few surnames are unrecognisable and are rendered as they appear to be spelt (e.g. Norest).

Some forenames are spelt according to local pronunciation. For example, the 'ee' sound is typically pronounced as –ay: thus Jean and Jane are interchangeable spellings for the same woman.

There are insufficient records to determine exact relationships of all individuals in the register. There are, for example, ten entries for individuals called John Lee; it is likely, however, that some of those entries are for the same individual.
